ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI AJAY KUMAR MISHRA)

(a): National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) compiles prison statistics reported to it by the States and Union Territories (UTs) and publishes the same in its annual publication "Prison Statistics India". The latest published report is of the year 2020. State/UT-wise number of women inmates lodged in jails of the country, including Assam, as on 31st December, 2020 are given in Annexure.

(b) to (d): 'Prisons'/'persons detained therein' is a "State List" subject under Entry 4 of List II of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India. Administration and management of prisoners is the responsibility of State Governments, who are competent to take appropriate steps for providing medical facilities to inmates, including women inmates. The Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has been supplementing the efforts of State Governments by issuing various advisories and guidelines from time to time. MHA had issued a detailed advisory to the States and UTs sharing the guidelines for providing facilities to women prisoners and their children, which, inter-alia, provide that the jails must have adequate facilities for pre-natal and post-natal care for female prisoners as well as their children. These guidelines also provide that the children of inmates should have access to education, recreational facilities, food, shelter and medical assistance etc. A comprehensive Model Prison Manual 2016 was also prepared by MHA and forwarded to all States and UTs in 2016. The Manual has a dedicated chapter on 'Women Prisoners', which provides guidance on Pregnancy, Child birth in Prisons, Children of Women prisoners, Healthcare, Diet and Food, and Personal Hygiene, etc. The Model Prison Manual 2016 also provides that prison administration should ensure holistic development of children of women inmates. MHA had also circulated a report titled 'Women in Prisons' prepared by the Ministry of
