ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF
SKILL DEVELOPMENT AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP
(SHRI RAJEEV CHANDRASEKHAR)

(a)   Yes, Sir. The details of students trained in Industrial Training Institutes and Government and Private Polytechnics for last three years, state-wise including Rajasthan district-wiseareat Annexure I&Annexure IIrespectively.

(b)   Yes, Sir. Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship has taken initiative to set up Indian Institute of Skills (IIS) in three locations viz. Ahmedabad, Kanpur and Mumbai. The vision behind setting up IIS is to build world class skill training centres by learning from and imbibing best practices from internationally renowned existing skill institutions.The status of three Indian Institute of Skills is as follows:

SI No	Name of IIS	Status
1.	IIS Ahmedabad	For setting up of IIS at Ahmedabad in PPP model, TATA Education and Development Trust (TEDT) is selected as private operating partner through RFP process.
2.	IIS Kanpur	Construction work for ISS building is in progress and the discussions for operations including agency are under way.
3.	IIS Mumbai	For setting up of IIS at Mumbai, Tata Education and Development Trust (TEDT) was selected as private operating partner through RFP process. Short-term courses have started for IIS Mumbai at Pune (in partnership with Festo).

(c) Setting up of Industrial Training Institutes (ITIs) is a concurrent subject, wherein the Central Government is entrusted with the responsibility of formulation of policy, laying down training standards, norms, whereas opening of ITIs, implementation of norms and day to day administration rests with the respective State Governments. Whenever such proposals are received for setting up of ITIs, these are examined and decided as per the affiliation standards and norms by Directorate General of Training (DGT).

(d) As on date no such proposal has been received.
