- (d) the details of the special efforts being made by the Government to promote endangered cultural heritage and art for Maharashtra?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF CULTURE AND TOURISM (SHRI GAJENDRA SINGH SHEKHAWAT)

a) A Scheme titled "Scheme for Safeguarding the Intangible Heritage and Diverse Cultural Traditions of India" was operational between 2013-2016. However Sangeet Natak Akademi (SNA) conducts capacity building workshops aimed at training and raising awareness about Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH). The workshop engages local communities, cultural practitioners, stakeholders, and students. As a result of these initiatives, there has been a significant increase in requests from across India for the inclusion of elements in the National Inventory. Documentation and digital archiving of performing arts and other ICH elements—especially those on the "Work in Progress" list—are being carried out on a regular basis. These efforts contribute not only to the digital preservation of ICH but also support students and researchers pursuing higher studies in these fields. In addition, awards are conferred upon artists to promote and raise awareness of various ICH elements. The Akademi contributes to both academic and public understanding of Indian performing arts and ICH elements through its extensive publication program, which includes journals, books, and monographs.

- b) The details of elements inscribed on the National Inventory till date is enclosed at Annexure.
- c) The Ministry through Sangeet Natak Akademi (SNA) maintains both the National Inventory and the "Work-in-Progress" list of Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH) elements, based on requests and submissions from local communities, civil society organisations, and other stakeholders. The inclusion of these elements helps enhance both the preservation and outreach of the respective art forms. Currently, a total of six elements from both states combined have been included in the National Inventory. For more details, please refer to: https://www.sangeetnatak.gov.in/sections/ICH SNA also conducts various capacity-building workshops and training programmes that actively involve local communities and artists. Furthermore, by conferring awards to artists for their contributions to specific art forms, SNA encourages community participation and promotes recognition of their cultural heritage.

d) The inclusion of Pandharpur Vari and Dashavatar: Traditional Folk Theatre in the National Inventory maintained by the SNA under this Ministry, plays a significant role in promoting the performing arts of Maharashtra. The documentation and archiving of these traditions help create greater outreach and serve as valuable resources for those interested in studying these art forms. Additionally, the publication of journals and other materials on these elements contributes to the preservation and promotion of endangered cultural practices. Moreover, performances held during various workshops and seminars further enhance public awareness and appreciation of these traditions.
