MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS
(SHRI NITYANAND RAI)

(a) to (c): There have been instances of participation and support by non-Indians to anti-India activities. The Government of India, including through its diplomatic Missions and Posts, has engaged with the host governments and urged them to not only take action against these elements under their respective domestic laws, but also to ensure adequate safety of our diplomatic properties and personnel as per relevant international conventions. Further, the travel of such non-Indians who are involved in these activities is prohibited into India in terms of Visa Manual, Rules and Guidelines issued from time to time.
