- (b) whether any advisory or directive has been issued to the State Governments to clear pending dues to vendors and contractors for smooth execution of various schemes under the Ministry within a fixed timeframe and if so, the details thereof;
- (c) whether any penalties are imposed or corrective measures are taken for repeated delays in fund utilisation by the State Governments and if so, the details thereof;
- (d) the steps proposed to be taken to strengthen financial discipline and transparency in the implementation of the Union Government's schemes under the Ministry in Karnataka; and
- (e) the total amount of funds sanctioned and utilised in Karnataka under schemes such as Atal Bhujal Yojana, Jal Jeevan Mission, Jal Shakti Abhiyan and others during the Financial Years 2024-25 and 2025-26 till date?

ANSWER

(SHRI RAJ BHUSHAN CHOUDHARY)

(a) to (d) Yes, there is a Monitoring Mechanism for tracking fund flow and bill clearance under Centrally Sponsored Schemes and Central Sector Schemes: -

For Centrally Sponsored Schemes: -

SNA-SPARSH (समयोचित प्रणाली एकीकृत शीघ्र हस्तक्षेपण- Real time System of Integrated Quick Transfers) module of PFMS was launched in 2023-24 for release of fund under CSS by the Department of Expenditure (DoE), Ministry of Finance (MoF). To track flow of funds under Centrally Sponsored Schemes various, SNA SPARSH reports are available in PFMS.

For Central Sector Schemes: -

DoE, Ministry of Finance has implemented the Central Nodal Agency (CNA) system of PFMS w.e.f. 2022-23 For release of fund under Central Sector Schemes. In this system there are three modules: -

1. Treasury Single Account (TSA) system for schemes with budgets exceeding Rs. 100 Crore.
2. TSA (Hybrid) System of PFMS for the schemes having more than two level implementing agencies or private sub-agencies.
3. CNA Model- 2 through scheduled commercial Bank Accounts for schemes with budgets not exceeding Rs. 100 Crore.

To track flow of funds under Central Sector Schemes CNA and TSA reports are available in PFMS.

States are advised to ensure prompt utilization of funds and to regularly reconcile and update expenditure details on the Public Financial Management System (PFMS).

Ministry of Jal Shakti regularly holds review meetings with State/UT authorities including Karnataka to assess both the physical and financial progress of Centrally Sponsored Schemes and Central Sector Scheme in addition to maintaining regular correspondence with State Governments to emphasize the timely utilization of funds. Wherever any delays and other implementation issues are noticed, the concerned State Governments are advised to take appropriate corrective measures.

Further, the Department of Expenditure (DoE), Ministry of Finance, also organises periodic review meetings with the State Governments and the concerned Subject Matter Divisions (SMD's)/Programme Divisions (PD's) of the Centrally Sponsored Schemes to monitor the financial progress.

(e) Details of Funds sanctioned and utilized by Karnataka under the schemes implemented by the Ministry of Jal Shakti is given in Annexure.
