AYUSH POPDs in West Bengal

1342. Shri Jyotirmay Singh Mahato:

Will the Minister of AYUSH be pleased to state:

- (a) the current status of the Paediatric Outpatient Department (POPD) proposed by the Government in Purulia district of West Bengal including the details of approvals, land availability;
- (b) whether any delay has occurred due to pending actions by the State Government of West Bengal and if so, the details thereof;
- (c) the total number of AYUSH POPDs currently operational in West Bengal, district-wise, along with information on their staffing and service delivery capacity;
- (d) whether the Government proposes to increase the number of POPDs in tribal-dominated districts of Junglemahal such as Purulia, Jhargram, Bankura, Medinipur etc. considering the high child population and limited paediatric healthcare access and if so, the details thereof;
- (e) whether the State Government has submitted proposals for establishing additional POPDs in West Bengal and if delays or non-submission of proposal have affected expansion and if so, the details thereof; and
- (f) the funds allocated and utilized for POPD development in West Bengal including the current status of utilization with respect to the proposed Purulia POPD?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE (IC) OF THE MINISTRY OF AYUSH
(SHRI PRATAPRAO JADHAV)

- (a) to (f) State Government of West Bengal reported that presently no such Paediatric Outpatient Department (POPD) was proposed under National Ayush Mission and no such Ayush POPD is available under State Government.
