- (c) the details of the amount spend by SAIL and other undertakings under the said Ministry during the above period, date-wise and location-wise?

ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE (SHRI BHUPATHIRAJU SRINIVASA VARMA)
MINISTRY OF STEEL

(a)to(c): As per provisions of the Companies Act, 2013, companies are mandated to spend at least two per cent of average net profit of three immediate preceding financial years towards Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). Steel CPSEs including Steel Authority of India Limited (SAIL) organize Health Camps under their CSR initiatives focusing on social, environmental, and economic development of the people living in the periphery of plants/mines. In the last three years, total amount spent by steel CPSEs' under Ministry of Steel in CSR is ₹ 846 crore, of which ₹462 crore was spent by SAIL.
