THE MINISTER OF STATE FOR TEXTILES
(SHRI PABITRA MARGHERITA)

(a): Yes. The National Textiles Ministers' Conference was held in Guwahati, Assam on 8–9 January 2026. It was organized by the Ministry of Textiles under the theme “India’s Textiles: Weaving Growth, Heritage & Innovation.” The conference brought together Union and State Textile Ministers and senior officials to deliberate on strengthening India’s textile sector and positioning the country as a global manufacturing hub.

(b): The key themes discussed were inter-alia Infrastructure, Investment & Manufacturing & Sustainability; Expanding Exports, Competitiveness & Branding of Textiles of India; Raw Materials & Fibres; Technical Textiles & New Age Fibres; and Traditional Textiles & Handicrafts

(c): The National Textiles Ministers' Conference concluded in Guwahati after two days of extensive deliberations with participation from Ministers and officials of States and Union Territories. The Conference resolved to:

- i. Strengthen Centre–State coordination for effective implementation of textile schemes;
- ii. Accelerate infrastructure development and technology upgradation under flagship programmes;
- iii. Work collectively towards achieving higher textile exports by 2030 through competitiveness and branding of Textiles of India;
- iv. Preserve and promote traditional textiles, handlooms and handicrafts, ensuring market access, value addition and livelihoods for artisans and weavers;
- v. Integrate sustainability and innovation across the textile value chain; and
- vi. The outcomes mark a significant step towards policy convergence, investment promotion and holistic growth of India’s textile sector, laying the roadmap for making India a global textile hub.

(d): The Government, in coordination with States and stakeholders, is fast-tracking infrastructure, technology upgradation, skill development, sustainability initiatives, and exports of Textiles of India.
