ANSWER

THE MINISTER OF COOPERATION
सहकारिता मंत्री (SHRI AMIT SHAH)

(a) As on date, the National Council for Cooperative Training (NCCT) has established a total of 20 training institutes across the country which includes Vaikunth Mehta National Institute of Cooperative Management (VAMNICOM) at the national level, 5 Regional Institutes of Cooperative Management (RICMs), and 14 Institutes of Cooperative Management (ICMs) spread across the country. The State-wise details of these training institutes is at Annexure – I

(b) The details of the year-wise funds sanctioned and released to the training institutes established by NCCT for the last 05 years are as follows:

Details of year wise Fund Sanctioned and released
Amount in Cr.
Particular	Financial Year
	2020-21	2021-22	2022-23	2023-24	2024-25
1	2	3	4	5	6
Grant sanctioned	51.74	53.82	44.00	44.79	46.70
Grant released	51.74	53.82	44.00	44.79	46.70

(c) & (d) : NCCT ensures training support to all States and Union Territories through VAMNICOM, RICMs and ICMs. In states where no training institute exists, the training responsibilities are undertaken by the nearest RICMs/ICMs. In addition, The Ministry of the Government has established a national-level university in the cooperative sector, namely, “Tribhuvan” Sahkari University (TSU) and all States have been requested to affiliate one institute in their respective jurisdiction with the TSU.

(e) & (f) NCCT conducts Post Graduate Diploma in Cooperative Business Management (PGDCBM), PostGraduate Diploma in Computer Applications (PGDCA), Higher Diploma in Cooperative Management (Correspondence) (HDCM-R), Dairy Diploma, Industrial Diploma and Diploma in Urban Cooperative Bank Management (DUCBM) through its training institutes. The details of the sector-wise beneficiaries trained for the past five years is at Annexure-II.

(g) The details regarding the short-term training programmes conducted by NCCT and its training institutes year-wise for the past five years is at Annexure-III.
