Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT, FOREST AND CLIMATE CHANGE be pleased to state:

- (a) whether the Government is aware of the shortfall in plantation activities under the National Mission for a Green India recorded between the years 2015 and 2025 and the manner in which this decline has affected the forest and green cover in the country, State/UT-wise along with the status of such activities, particularly in Bharatpur, Nabarangpur and Keonjhar and Bhopal Lok Sabha Constituencies;
- (b) if so, the steps being taken by the Government to address the said shortfall and accelerate plantation activities along with the progress made under the said mission in the said Constituencies;

- (c) the details of specific role of the weightage (including rewards for increased forest area and open forest inclusion) assigned by the 16th Finance Commission in incentivising States to increase their forest cover, State/UT-wise, including Bharatpur and Dewas-Shajapur regions;
- (d) whether the Government has successfully integrated carbon sequestration monitoring using Geographic Information System (GIS) and remote sensing into the design of the Green India Mission and if so, the details thereof, State/UT-wise including the said Constituencies/regions along with its impact on forest and plantation activities; and
- (e) the details of funds allotted and utilized by the Karnataka during the last three years and the current year under the said Mission, city-wise, particularly in Bengaluru?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT, FOREST AND CLIMATE CHANGE
(SHRI KIRTI VARDHAN SINGH)

- (a) & (b) The National Mission for a Green India (GIM) is one of the nine Missions under the National Action Plan on Climate Change (NAPCC) and aims to protect, restore, and enhance forest and tree cover while contributing to climate change mitigation and adaptation through plantation and ecosystem restoration in identified landscapes. The Mission adopts a landscape-based approach, focusing on integrated restoration and management of forests and allied ecosystems at the landscape and micro-ecosystem level, while addressing ecological, hydrological, and socio-economic dimensions. GIM is implemented through a convergence-based framework, aligning with various Central and State Government schemes and programmes, including CAMPA, MGNREGS, State Forestry Plans, and other afforestation and watershed initiatives. This approach ensures optimal utilization of resources, avoids duplication of efforts, and enables scaling up of restoration interventions across large landscapes with community participation. Activities under GIM are undertaken based on approved Perspective Plans and Annual Plans of Operation submitted by the States and approved by the National Executive Council.

GIM has significantly contributed to the overall increase in India's forest and tree cover. As per the India State of Forest Report (ISFR), forest and tree cover has increased from 7,94,245 sq km in 2015 to 8,27,356.95 sq km in 2023, registering a net increase of 33,111.95 sq km. These gains are attributable to sustained afforestation, eco-restoration, and coordinated efforts of Central and State Governments under various schemes, including GIM. The State/UT-wise forest and tree cover details as per ISFR 2015 and 2023 are placed at Annexure-I.

Further, under the overarching theme of "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam", a nationwide voluntary plantation initiative was launched on 5th June 2024 to promote tree planting as an environmental and emotional commitment through public participation and convergence with ongoing schemes. The details of overall plantation activities undertaken in Bharatpur, Nabarangpur, Keonjhar, and Bhopal districts under Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam are provided in Annexure-II.

- (c) The Finance Commission recommends the devolution of funds to States based on various criteria, including forest and ecology. The weightage assigned to forest and ecology in the horizontal devolution formula provides incentives to States for maintaining and enhancing forest cover. The distribution of funds under Finance Commission recommendations is done State-wise and not constituency-wise. Accordingly, no separate allocation is made for Bharatpur or Dewas-Shajapur regions.

- (d) Monitoring of forest and tree cover, including assessment of forest carbon stock, is carried out biennially by the Forest Survey of India (FSI) using remote sensing, GIS-based tools and ground-based inventory methods. These assessments include the impact of afforestation and restoration activities undertaken under various schemes including the Green India Mission. State/UT-wise details of forest carbon stock as per ISFR 2023 are given in Annexure-III.
- (e) Funds under the Green India Mission are released to the States/UTs based on approved Annual Plans of Operation. In the State of Karnataka, funds have been released during the last three years and the current year for implementation of approved activities under GIM. The Mission is implemented in selected landscapes namely Siddapura (Uttar Kannada), Arkalgud (Hassan) and Chincholi (Kalburgi). The Year-wise details of funds released and utilized by the State of Karnataka are given in Annexure-IV.
