- (b) whether the Government has called meeting with trade unions/employee representatives to make pitch for a new factories law;
- (c) if so, the details thereof;
- (d) whether the trade unions have questioned some of the key provisions which would take a large chunk of workers out of the purview of the factories law; and
- (e) if so, the corrective steps taken by the Government in this regard?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE (IC) FOR LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT
(SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA)

(a): The Government has initiated steps to amend the Factories Act, 1948, which aims to provide safety and health and welfare of labour as well as regulations of conditions of work.

(b) to (e): The Government has consulted various stakeholders which includes Employers Association & Trade Unions for building a consensus. A tripartite consultative meeting under the Chairmanship of Hon'ble Minister for Labour and Employment has taken place on 3.11.2015 at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi. During the meeting the trade unions also gave various suggestions which would be duly evaluated.
