ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE (IC) FOR LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT
(SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA)

- (a): According to the survey conducted by the National Sample Survey Organisation (NSSO) during 2011-12, the total employment in both organised and unorganised sector in the country was 47 crores. Out of this, about 8 crores were in the organised sector and the balance 39 crores is in the unorganised sector. India's GDP is sector-wise divided viz. Agriculture, forestry & fishing, Mining & quarrying, Manufacturing, Electricity, gas, water supply & other utility services, Construction, Trade, hotels, transport, communication and services related to broadcasting, Financial, real estate & professional services and Public administration, defence and other Services. The data in respect of organised and unorganised sector-wise contribution in India's Gross Domestic Product is not maintained.

(b): As per the survey carried out by the National Sample Survey Organization in the year 2004-05, the total employment in both organized and unorganized sector in the country was 45.9 crore. Out of this, 2.6 crores were in the organised sector and balance of about 43.30 crore (about 94%) in the unorganized sector. According to the survey conducted during 2011-12, the total employment in both organized and unorganized sector in the country was 47 crore, out of this, about 8 crores were in the organised sector and the balance 39 (about 83%) crores is in the unorganised sector. Hence, during the last decade there is about 11% decrease in the portion of unorganised workers in the total work force in the country.

(c) to (e): The Government has enacted 'Unorganised Workers' Social Security Act, 2008' for the welfare of unorganised workers. The Act provides for formulation of suitable welfare schemes for unorganised workers on matters relating to: (i) life and disability cover, (ii) health and maternity benefits, (iii) old age protection and (iv) any other benefit as may be determined by the Central Government through the National Social Security Board. Various Social Security Schemes, formulated by the Government to provide social security cover to the unorganized workers, listed in the Schedule I of the Unorganised Workers' Social Security Act, 2008 are as under:

- i. Indira Gandhi National Old Age Pension Scheme. (Ministry of Rural Development)
