THE MINISTER OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
(SHRI RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD)

- (a) No Madam, the Postal Department has been continuously earning higher revenue every year and its share of revenue has been increasing year after year.
- (b) Not applicable in view of reply at (a) above.
- (c) No Madam.
- (d) & (e) Yes Madam, 48 dedicated Parcel Centres have been established in 2014-15 and another 9 have been established this year. Department is laying special emphasis on the Parcel segment through upgradation of Parcel infrastructure, improving the delivery system and revamping parcel transmission modes and routes. Some measures taken to improve quality of parcel service are as follows:-

Contd.....2/-

- i. The Parcel transmission & delivery network is being continuously reviewed and monitored for checking and improving efficiencies and better service quality.
- ii. The Department of Posts offers end-to-end track & trace for Speed Post, Registered and other parcels through its website (www.indiapost.gov.in). This track and trace facility is available to retail as well as bulk customers for tracking the consignments on a real time basis.
- iii. Department is developing its Road Transport Network for fast and secure transmission of parcels on identified routes. 11 major routes have been started this year.
- iv. Department has introduced Mechanized Nodal Delivery of parcels from identified delivery centres in certain cities.
- v. GPS devices have been installed in mail vans and other security measures improved.
- vi. As a result of the efforts towards improving the quality of its services, the revenues of the Department have been consistently growing in the last several years.
