ANSWER
MINISTER OF LAW AND JUSTICE
(SHRI D.V. SADANANDA GOWDA)

(a) to (e): As per the existing “in-house mechanism” for dealing with the complaints against the higher judiciary, the Chief Justice of India is competent to receive complaints against the conduct of the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Chief Justices of the High Courts. Similarly, the Chief Justices of the High Courts are competent to receive complaints against the conduct of judges of the High Courts. The complaints received by the Government are being forwarded to the Supreme Court or the concerned High Court, as the case may be, for action as deemed appropriate. The Central Government has no mechanism to address such complaints and as such, no data in this regard is maintained.

To change the existing system for investigation into the complaints of misbehaviour or incapacity of Judges of the Supreme Court or High Courts and to enforce greater accountability, a Bill titled “The Judicial Standards and Accountability Bill” was moved by the Government in the previous Lok Sabha. However, the Bill lapsed with the dissolution of 15th Lok Sabha.
