

Annexure I

Sl. No.	Name of the closed plants PSU-wise	Steps taken by Government to revive, nature of plant (gas-based/coal based), proposed commencement date if any
1	The Fertilizer Corporation of India Limited (FCIL)	Sindri (Jharkhand)	Cabinet in its meeting held on 21.05.2015 has decided to revive this unit on "bidding route by providing land on lease. The plant is proposed to gas based.
		Gorakhpur (Uttar Pradesh)	Cabinet in its meeting held on 31.03.2015 has decided to revive this unit on "bidding route by providing land on lease. The plant is proposed to be gas based.
		Talcher (Odisha)	CCEA in its meeting held on 09.05.2013 decided to revive this unit on "Nomination basis". PSUs namely RCF, GAIL, CIL and FCIL have been nominated to revive this unit. The new plant would be coal-based.
		Ramagundam (Telangana)	CCEA in its meeting held on 09.05.2013 decided to revive this unit on "Nomination basis". PSUs namely NFL, EIL and FCIL have been nominated to revive this unit. The new plant would be gas-based is due for commissioning by end of year 2018.
		Korba (Chhattisgarh)	Korba unit is to be revived on bidding route.
2	The Fertilizers And Chemicals Travancore Limited	Cochin (Urea) Plant, (Kerala)	No decision has been taken so far.
3	Hindustan Fertilizer Corporation Ltd. (HFCL)	Haldia (West Bengal)	CCEA in its meeting held on 09.05.2013 directed that proposal/action plan on revival of HFCL units will be taken up once revival of FCIL units is on track.
		Durgapur (West Bengal)	CCEA in its meeting held on 09.05.2013 directed that proposal/action plan on revival of HFCL units will be taken up once revival of FCIL units is on track.
		Barauni (Bihar)	Cabinet in its meeting held on 31.03.2015 approved to revive this unit on "bidding route, by providing land on lease to the successful bidder. The plant is proposed to be gas based.
4	Brahmaputra Valley Fertilizers Ltd. (BVFCL)	Namrup-I (Assam)	There is no plan to revive it. Instead a up 8.646 Lakh Metric Tone Per Annum New-Brownfield Ammonia-Urea Complex (Namrup-IV) is proposed to be set up at the same location. Union Cabinet in its meeting held on 21.05.2015 has approved the proposal.