(b) The member countries govern the World Bank Group through the Board of Governors and the Board of Executive Directors. These bodies take all the major decisions for the member organizations including policy, financial or membership issues. The Finance Minister of India is the Governor of the World Bank and the Secretary, Department of Economic Affairs is the Alternate Governor. Although all the powers for the World Bank Group are vested in the Board of Governors, they have delegated most of the powers to the Executive Directors. Accordingly, the Executive Director representing India participates in these decision making processes.
