ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE (IC) FOR LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT
(SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA)

(a) & (b): Under the provisions of Minimum Wages Act, 1948 both the Central Government and State Governments are the appropriate governments to fix/revise minimum wages in the schedule employment in their respective spheres. The Central Government has requested the State Governments to take necessary steps for inclusion of domestic work as employment in the schedule and fixing minimum rates of wages for domestic workers.

Contd..2/-

(c) & (d): Since domestic work falls under the State sphere, it is primarily the responsibility of the State Governments to take action for protecting people including domestic workers from exploitation and to look into the complaints against placement agencies. However, the Central Government has also asked the State Governments to take necessary steps for registration of placement agencies providing domestic workers.

(e) & (f): The Central Government has issued guidelines on operation of private placement agencies to all the States and Union Territories to consider the regulation of functioning of such agencies in order to safeguard the interest of job seekers.
