(a) to (c) : Details are annexed.

Annexure referred to in reply to parts (a) to (c) of Lok Sabha Unstarred Question No.3640 for 08.08.2016 regarding Educational Development of the Economically Backward Classes.

Schemes for Economically Backward Classes

(i) There is a Central Sector Scheme which provides for full Interest Subsidy for the period of moratorium on educational loans taken by students from economically weaker sections with annual parental income up to Rs.4.5 lakh, from scheduled banks under the Educational Loan Scheme of the Indian Banks' Association to pursue Technical/Professional Education Studies in India. The details of the scheme are available on MHRD website www.mhrd.gov.in. For the year 2016-17, a sum of Rs.1,950 crore has been allocated for this scheme. Canara Bank is the nodal bank for implementing the scheme and also for ensuring proper utilisation and credit to the students loan account.

(ii) There is a Central Sector Scheme of Scholarship for College and University Students and a Special Scholarship Scheme for Jammu & Kashmir. The objective of the scheme is to provide financial assistance to meritorious students having annual family income of less than Rs.6 lakh. The details of the scheme are available on www.scholarships.gov.in. For the year 2016-17, a sum of Rs.270 crore has been allocated for this scheme.

(iii) The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has stated that the Dr. Ambedkar Post-Matric Scholarship Scheme of that Ministry, seeks to provide financial assistance to the Economically Backward Class (EBC) students studying at post-matriculation stage having annual family income of Rs.1 lakh. The details of the scheme are available on www.socialjustice.nic.in. For the year 2016-17, a sum of Rs.10 crore has been allocated for this scheme.

(iv) The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment has further stated that Dr. Ambedkar Scheme of Interest Subsidy on Educational Loans for Overseas Studies of the Ministry awards interest subsidy to meritorious Other Backward Class (OBC) and EBC students so as to provide them better opportunities for higher education abroad. To be eligible under the scheme, a student should come under the income ceiling of Rs.3 lakh per annum for OBCs and Rs.1 lakh for EBCs. 50% of the outlay every year is earmarked for girl students. The details of the scheme are available on www.socialjustice.nic.in. For the year 2016-17, a sum of Rs.2 crore has been allocated for this scheme.

(v) The All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) scheme, PRAGATI (Providing Assistance for Girls' Advancement in Technical Education Initiative) envisages selection of one girl per family where family income is less than 6 lakh per annum, on merit at the qualifying examination to pursue technical education. The scholarship amount is Rs.30,000 or tuition fees or actual, whichever is less, and Rs. 2,000 per month for ten months as incidentals each year. The details of the scheme are available on www.aicte-india.org. For the year 2016-17, a sum of Rs.20 crore has been allocated for this scheme.
