THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CORPORATE AFFAIRS

(SHRI ARJUN RAM MEGHWAL)

कारपोरेट कार्य मंत्रालय में राज्य मंत्री

(श्री अर्जुन राम मेघवाल)

- (a) While the Ministry of Corporate Affairs is not aware that the Confederation of All India Traders has blamed big retailers for the present crisis of pulses in the country, the Department of Consumer Affairs, Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution has stated that the recent rise in prices of pulses is mainly on account of shortfall in domestic production due to adverse weather conditions, along with an increase in demand, due to rise in population and per capita income, as well as change in food habits.
- (b) & (c) No, Madam.
- (d) Does not arise.
- (e) It has been stated by the Department of Consumer Affairs, Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution, that the steps taken by the Government include strict enforcement of the Essential Commodities (EC) Act, 1955 and Prevention of Black Marketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essentials (PBMMSE) Act, 1980; strict vigilance by the Government to prevent importers from misusing the facilities of Customs Bonded Warehouse facility; regular monitoring and exchange of information on hoarding, cartelization, imposition of stock limit on pulses, etc.
